

Primary Homeroom Teacher

Job Description

Start Date: July 29, 2020

About the Position

ISC is looking for a licensed, primary school teacher capable of working as the homeroom teacher for one of the classes between Grades 1 – 4. This is a full-time teaching position. The curriculum taught is a combination of international standards and those of the German state of Schleswig-Holstein. This teacher will also be asked to teach interdisciplinary project based learning courses during the afternoon program as needed or possible depending on course load.

About Our School

At ISC, we are an international, diverse & inclusive community. We pursue the discovery of the world, self, & others through progressive pedagogy with the goal of empowering our students to live a fully actualized life in the 21st Century. We place equal emphasis on Social-Emotional Learning and 21st Century Skill development, and we are building a pedagogical approach that provides ample room for teacher autonomy and innovation. As a four-year-old school, teachers have a unique opportunity to join our team at a point where many of the most difficult start-up challenges have been solved, yet myriad opportunities remain for their own authorship of our program.

What We Look For

At ISC, we've set out to build a school where creativity thrives in a diverse and responsive environment. We believe that planning, communication, and flexibility are vital for our success, and we value teachers who bring experience in these skills to the table. Our teachers identify with and adhere to the ISC Spirit: Teach Your Heart Out, Never Stop Learning, All Hands on Deck, and Lead with Love.
